A Hen Night To Die For Because...

- A chance to pick up some tricks of the trade.
- Create your very own, original cocktail.
- A great afternoon activity to get you in the mood for cocktails after dark!

Cocktail making lessons are very simple and a whole barrel of fun.

Our charming barmen will teach you how to mix cocktails from a set menu and you all get the opportunity to make (and most importantly, drink) the cocktails. So you will be joining the bartender from behind the bar pouring drinks and shaking tins.

You might discover your talent for flairing and mixology too! To top the cocktail workshop off, you get the chance to design and drink your own cocktail, named after the bride to be!
